

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

2018 – 2019 YEOC Mentor in Training Position Description

Young Executives of Color (YEOC)

2018-2019 YEOC Mentor in Training (MIT) Application

The Young Executives of Color (YEOC) program is our hallmark high school to college pipeline program supported by the Foster Undergraduate Diversity Services Office (UDS) & EY. Established in 2006 the mission of the Young Executives of Color (YEOC) program is to cultivate the academic potential of underrepresented high school student leaders in Washington State through college preparation, powerful mentorship, and the development of real life business skills.

YEOC was established to increase the number of underrepresented students in the college pipeline and at the University of Washington Foster School of Business. YEOC is a 9-month program that serves 170 high school students from 75 high schools around the state of Washington. Each fall every high school student is assigned a YEOC mentor to support them through the program. The YEOC Mentor-In-Training Program provides an outstanding leadership and service opportunity for a diverse group of undergraduate students who will represent the Foster School of Business, collaborate with Foster departments and the greater UW community.

YEOC Mentor in Training Job Description:

The Mentor in Training (MIT) program is for UW pre-business students. MITs support the YEOC program in a number of ways including special sessions, administration and leadership support at our Saturday sessions. Successful completion of the MIT training program will result in an invitation to become a YEOC mentor the following academic year.

Qualifications:

- Current UW freshmen or sophomores (pre-business business majors preferred)
- Active involvement in Foster & UW leadership programs
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Passion for supporting underrepresented students and access to higher education
- A self-starter with strong organization and time managed skills
- Enjoys working with high school students and families from diverse backgrounds
- Strong academic record; expected to adhere to the University of Washington policies and procedures

YEOC ALUMNI STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO APPLY

YEOC Mentor in Training Duties:

- Attend and support 6 of the YEOC sessions. For example: workshops, event logistics and student activities
- Attend mandatory mentor meetings and trainings prior to each one of the YEOC sessions
- Each MIT will plan and lead a significant piece of one of the monthly YEOC sessions
- The entire MIT team will plan and lead a significant portion of the iCreate Consulting Challenge
- Opportunity to mentor incoming UW Freshmen
- Be on call to substitute in place of a YEOC Mentor in case of emergency
- Check in with YEOC Program Manager quarterly to discuss your progress

YEOC Program Dates and Times

Program set up begins at 7:30am sharp, student check-in will start at 8:30 am and the program will be held from 9:00am - 4:00 pm one Saturday of each month:

2018-2019 YEOC Program Dates: *Program Dates are Subject to Change

September 29th, 2018	February 2nd, 2019
October 13th, 2018	March 2nd, 2019
November 10th, 2018	April 6th, 2019
December 1st, 2018	May 4th, 2019
January 12th, 2019	May 18th, 2019 (YEOC Seniors Only)

YEOC Dress Code

All YEOC MITs are expected to adhere to a business casual dress code. This means no sneakers, sweat suits, hats, tee shirts, tank tops, shorts, jerseys or jeans.

YEOC Program Location

All YEOC Saturday programs are held at the University of Washington campus in Paccar Hall. YEOC MITs will greet students and check-in with their mentees at the beginning of each session.

Absences

All YEOC MITs are required to attend 6 YEOC Saturday sessions at minimum. Failure to do so may result in a decrease in your mentor stipend and participation in the program

YEOC Mentor Stipend

Each MIT earns a yearly stipend of $700 for participating in the YEOC program. This stipend will be dispersed to MITs at the end of each academic quarter. Receiving your full stipend depends on your attendance and full participation at all program sessions and mentor meetings.

YEOC is a Yearlong Commitment

If selected as a YEOC MIT you will sign a yearlong contract to be a part of the program, there are no exceptions. Anyone who breaches the contract will not be invited to participate in the program the following academic year.

Applying to Be A Mentor-In-Training:

Applications for the YEOC Mentor-In-Training position can be completed online and are found on the YEOC Mentorship Program website: <http://foster.uw.edu/academics/degree-programs/undergraduate-programs/diversity-services/young-executives-of-color-yeoc/mentorship-program/>

Recommendation:

Required Letter of Recommendation: One letter of recommendation is required to complete the application. This letter must be written by a supervisor, professor, former teacher or professional mentor. Letters of recommendation written by family members, friends, or professional peers will NOT be accepted. The recommender should be prepared to address the following questions:

- How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity?
- Why do you believe this individual will be an effective mentor for high school students from underrepresented communities?

Optional Letter of Recommendation: If the applicant chooses to do so, an additional, optional letter of recommendation is required will be accepted for review. This letter may be written by a supervisor, professor, former teacher, professional mentor or a fellow student leader on campus (i.e. officers of student organizations; current YEOC Mentors (who are not applying), etc.). The recommender must be prepared to respond to the same questions.

Essay Response:

Included within the application is an essay response. Below, is a preview of the questions you will be asked to address in this essay response. Please note, based on your applicant status, you should only answer one set of questions in your essay.

Current YEOC Mentor/MiT Essay Instructions

If you are CURRENTLY a YEOC Mentor or Mentor-In-Training, please write an essay addressing the questions below. The essay should not exceed 800 words.

1. What unique qualities did you bring to enhance the current YEOC student leadership team?
2. How has your understanding of the YEOC Mentor role evolved over the past year?

How would you describe your mentorship style? Please provide examples of both strengths and areas for improvement.

New Applicants - YEOC Mentor-In-Training Essay Instructions

If you have NEVER been a YEOC Mentor-In-Training, please write a brief essay addressing the questions below. The essay should not exceed 1200 words.

- 1. Describe your educational and personal background. What qualities would you bring to the YEOC Program?*
- 2. Why are you interested in becoming a YEOC MIT? What skills and experiences would you bring to the position?*
- 3. The Mentor-In-Training role is meant to prepare student leaders to become future Mentors. Is there a personal mentor (YEOC or otherwise) you aspire to be like? What about their mentorship style do you emulate?*

Please direct all questions to:

Damariz Ibanez
YEOC Program Manager
University of Washington - Michael G. Foster School of Business
Dempsey Hall 202, Box 353200
Seattle, WA 98195-3200
Office: 206.221.5128 Fax: 206.616.8225
Email: dvibanez@uw.edu

Thank you for your interest in supporting the Young Executives of Color program!