

2001 Business Plan Competition Winners

$35,000 GRAND PRIZE

ENSEMBLE NETWORKS

Jason Demeny, Larry Walters, Josh Hutto, and Chris Thompson

Enables the deployment of private computational grids creating a virtual supercomputer that delivers advanced computational power.

$10,000 FINALIST TEAMS

THE GLASS FOUNDRY AT SAND POINT

Linda Pruitt, Craig Parsons

Will build and operate the largest glass-casting foundry for fine art and architectural product in the world, in Seattle.

EMDIA

Dennis Luo, Sharon Im-Lee, Sarah Schulz, Dewi Intan

Innovates medical ergonomics for healthcare organizations, providing the finest care and fully addressing patient needs.

SAWDUST

Ann Melone, Kassia McDonald, Troy McClelland, RJ Jones

Is a service-based company that offers woodworking shop time, project plans, and classes for Seattle's woodworking hobbyists.

$5000 BEST IDEA PRIZES

E-Commerce

LOAN IMPACT

Jeff Chen, Victor Chynoweth, Marshall High, CK Mahalath

Aligns the needs of students, financial aid offices, and banks to provide accurate up-to-date information for the student loan repayment process.

Technology

GRAPEVINE SOFTWARE

Eddie Chung, Matt Boos, George Donegan, Maksim Noy, Jing Su

Provides software and services that make information access seamless and simple across multiple communications and computing devices.

Excellence in Global Marketing

ENSEMBLE NETWORKS

Jason Demeny, Larry Walters, Josh Hutto, and Chris Thompson

Enables the deployment of private computational grids creating a virtual supercomputer that delivers advanced computational power.

Service/Retail

SAWDUST

Ann Melone, Kassia McDonald, Troy McClelland, RJ Jones

Is a service-based company that offers woodworking shop time, project plans, and classes for Seattle's woodworking hobbyists.

Community Service

THE GLASS FOUNDRY AT SAND POINT

Linda Pruitt, Craig Parsons

Will build and operate the largest glass-casting foundry for fine art and architectural product in the world, in Seattle.

Sustainability

SMART ENERGIES GROUP

Cameron Cummings, Jeff Chen, Melody Kao, Krishna Viswanathan

Is a full-service energy provider bridging the energy needs of private consumers and utility companies.