

Wei Xia

Phone: (972) 971-9756 | Email: wei2009@uw.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. University of Washington, Exp. 2023
Major: Technology Entrepreneurship
MBA National University of Singapore, 2005
B. Engineering Southeast University, China, 1997
Major: Electrical Engineering

RESEARCH INTERESTS

My research program is situated at the intersection of entrepreneurship and social network theory, with a specific focus on VCs and entrepreneurial firms.

PUBLICATIONS

BAI, X. O., Tsang, E.W.K., & XIA, W., (2020) “Domestic versus Foreign Listing: Does A CEO’s Educational Experience Matter?” Journal of Business Venturing.

WORKING PAPERS

“Although We Differ, If I Include You, Will You Include Me? Reducing National Tribalism Among U.S. and Chinese Venture Capital Firms Through Conciliatory Collaborative First Moves” (Under Review)

“Closing a Triad: A Tug of War Between the Broker and the Alters” (Revising Draft)

AWARDS, GRANTS AND HONORS

Evert McCabe Endowed PhD Fellowship, 2018, 2019, 2020

CEIBS Cathay Cross-border Private Equity Research Grant, 2018 & 2020

CONFERENCE PAPERS

Academy of Management Annual Meeting (AOM). “Who is more likely to extend and return a favor? - China meets West” Virtual meeting, August, 2020.

Strategic Management Society (SMS). “I need you but you may not need me-A study of the Chinese venture capital industry” Minneapolis, October, 2019.

Strategic Management Society (SMS). “Do network positions compensate for knowledge deficiency in directional networks?” Paris, September, 2018.

Academy of Management Annual Meeting (AOM). “The Effects of A CEO’s Educational Background on The Choice of IPO Location.” Atlanta, August, 2017.

Strategic Management Society (SMS). “Behind the Choice of IPO Location.” Houston, October, 2017.