

About Universidad de San Andrés	Founded in 1989 by the Scottish Community in Argentina and inspired by the pedagogical system of the liberal arts colleges, the Universidad de San Andrés is a privately-owned, not for profit institution with a complete academic offering in various fields. Its mission is to build an academic community of professors, students and alumni motivated by the search for truth and contributing to progress in Argentina and to the well-being of its citizens. With more than 6,000 students enrolled, Universidad de San Andrés provides the possibility of studying with professors who conduct cutting-edge research and were trained at some of the best universities in the world. It is one of the few universities in Argentina with a large, full-time faculty who hold regular office-hours and provide personal attention to answer student questions and concerns. Most faculty members hold Ph.D. degrees from international universities, and a majority have had experience teaching abroad. The university's main facilities are set on a picturesque and secure campus, just forty-five minutes from downtown Buenos Aires. Certain graduate level classes also take place at the San Andrés downtown building located in the lovely Recoleta neighborhood.

ACADEMICS

Language of Instruction	SPANISH:The primary language of instruction is Spanish. Students must have the equivalent of at least two years of college level Spanish or a B2 level in the Common European Framework of Languages. Students with an intermediate level of Spanish may be considered on a case-by-case basis and depending on their individual study plan while at UdeSA. If determined during the application process that applicants have not achieved the appropriate level, students will be denied admissions or in some cases required to take the Spanish Intensive Program prior to the beginning of the semester (see below for more information). ENGLISH:During the Aug-Dec academic semester each year, a limited number of courses (approximately 10) are offered in English. In addition, many courses have some reading materials in English. Students should be proficient in English (B2 level). UdeSA cannot guarantee that exchange students will be able to register only in courses taught in English.
Language Courses	Two levels of Advanced Spanish language courses are offered as part of the regular curriculum during the semester. Students whose Spanish is above these levels may take “Escritura y Prácticas Discursivas Universitarias,” a course on academic writing skills designed for Spanish native speakers. During February & July a fee based Intensive Spanish program is held for Spanish at the intermediate level. See below for more information. IMPORTANT: Students interested in July Intensive Spanish Program should submit app as early as possible (latest Mar. 15).
