About

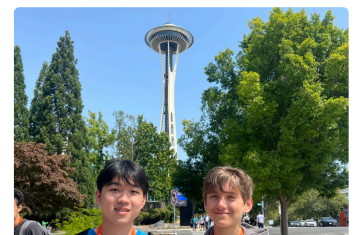

Established in 1917, the University of Washington Foster School of Business is one of the leading business schools in the United States, consistently ranked among the top public business schools by U.S. News & World Report. Foster is renowned for its commitment to producing innovative, principled, and globally-minded students and leaders.

Located in the heart of Seattle, a city famous for its tech and entrepreneurial spirit, the school provides students access to world-class companies and industry leaders.

During this session with UW Foster, rising juniors and senior students will experience hands-on learning, develop leadership skills, and connect with mentors in a supportive, collaborative environment. It's an incredible opportunity to get a taste of college life and explore your passion for business.

Summer Springboard programs are not run by our campus partners (with the exception of Cal Poly, UW Foster, and NYSID which are run in partnership with SSB). Universities and their affiliated departments and partners do not control and are not responsible or liable in any manner for any part of the Summer Springboard program.

Student Life

Experience student life with your peers in the vibrant residential communities at the University of Washington, located in the beautiful Pacific Northwest surrounded by stunning views of the Cascade Mountains, Lake Washington, and Mount Rainier. Seattle offers one of the most stunning settings in the country, with access to both city life and nature.

Lodging and Meals

Students will live in a modern and newly renovated residential dorm at the University of Washington, sharing a dorm room with one roommate and having an en-suite bathroom. Rooms are furnished with twin size beds, desks, chairs, small dressers, mirrors, and standalone wardrobe closets. A Summer Springboard Team Member lives on the floors, ready to assist with anything you may need during your stay.
